

Alexandria Gazette.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, JUNE 14, 1905.

Local Matters.

Sun rises tomorrow at 4:33 and sets 7:28. At 10 a. m. at 5:27 a. m. and 6:00 p. m.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this morning partly cloudy and continued warm tonight and Thursday; light variable winds, mostly easterly.

Episcopal High School.

The joint final celebration of the Fairfax and Blackford Literary Societies of the Episcopal High School of Virginia, near this city, was held in Liggett Hall last night according to the programme published in yesterday's Gazette. The recitations, declamations and addresses were all well rendered and the exercises were interspersed with music. A large audience was present including a number from this city.

The closing exercises of the sixty-sixth year of the school was held this evening at 8 o'clock, the programme being as follows:

Prayer; delivery of certificates; gaudium; presentation of prizes; for reading at sight—second prize, J. Y. McDonald, of West Virginia. First prize, J. McKim Minton, jr., of New York.

For reading—second prize, Ambler M. Blackford, of Fairfax county. First prize, Churchill J. Gibson, of Richmond.

For declamation—second prize, Theodore T. Kennedy, of New York. First prize, Ambler M. Blackford, of Fairfax county.

For Scholarship—Whitely prize: Geo. M. Anderson, of New Jersey; Laurence M. Blackford, jr., of Fairfax county; John G. Gough, of Maryland; Henry A. Latane, of Westmoreland county; Charles C. Randolph, jr., of Campbell county, and George Parker Swift, of Georgia.

Johns prize.—Forrest A. Brown, of West Virginia; Garland J. Hopkins, of Petersburg; Richard P. Johnson, of Maryland; Richard P. Jones, of Mississippi; Talbot T. Pendleton, of West Virginia; Henry L. Smith, jr., of West Virginia; Walter Herron Taylor IV., of Norfolk, and Robert Llewellyn White, of Petersburg.

Meade prize.—Basil K. Conway, of Mississippi; William J. Mann, jr., of Fauquier county; John Y. McDonald, of West Virginia; Farrell D. Minor, jr., of Texas; Alexander R. Seamon, of Charlottesville, and Francis Fortescue White, of Petersburg.

Recitation, reading and declamation by T. T. Kennedy, C. J. Gibson, and A. M. Blackford, respectively.

Presentation of medals.—Randolph Fairfax memorial prize medals, for excellence in general scholarship, to Walter Herron Taylor, IV., of Norfolk; Robert Taylor Wilson prize medal, for excellence in English composition, to William Jackson Mann, jr., of Fauquier county; Llewellyn Hoxton memorial prize medal, for excellence in mathematics, to Walter Herron Taylor, IV., of Norfolk; William Garrett Bibb prize medal, for excellence in Shakespeare (Merchant of Venice, Macbeth and Othello), to William Jackson Mann, jr., of Fauquier county; H. S. Liggett memorial junior prize medal, for excellence in general scholarship, to George Moncrief Anderson, of New Jersey.

Conferring certificates of graduation upon Churchill Jones Gibson, of Richmond; Richard Potts Johnson, of Maryland; Henry Augustine Latane, of Westmoreland county; William Berry Marbury, of Maryland; John McKim Minton, jr., of New York. Gloria in excelsis; blessing; dulce domum.

Music was rendered during the evening.

Old Boys' Association.

A meeting of the Alumni of the Episcopal High School for the purpose of forming an Old Boys' Association was held in Liggett Hall at 10:30 o'clock this morning. The meeting was in pursuance of plans which have been maturing for some time. A goodly number were present and the desire for the formation of the organization was marked. The purpose was effected by the formation of the Old Boys' Association of the Episcopal High School of Virginia.

Mr. Winslow H. Randolph was made temporary chairman, and Mr. Mayo Cabell Brown temporary secretary.

Mr. L. H. Machen, of this city, outlined the general object of the meeting. His remarks bristled with anecdote and were replete with humor. He noted with the pride that all old boys manifest the many proofs of loyalty manifested by the alumni for their alma mater, prominent among which are Liggett Hall and the Hoxton memorial cottage. Mr. Machen stated in a forcible manner the benefits resulting from the organization about to be perfected.

He was followed by Rev. W. H. K. Pendleton, who spoke of the need of such an organization for the Episcopal High School, and outlined his views in a brief manner. The chairman called upon Mr. R. Colston Blackford, who responded humorously, keeping his hearers convulsed with laughter while reciting anecdotes of school days, so dear to all.

A committee was subsequently appointed to prepare a constitution. It consisted of Mr. Henry C. Riely, Mr. L. C. Barley and Dr. L. W. Glazebrook. They soon reported the same which was adopted after some amendments.

A committee was then appointed to nominate officers, and the following were presented and unanimously elected: President, R. W. Moore, of Fairfax; first vice president, Arthur Barnwell, jr., of New York; second vice president, Frank B. Smith, of Baltimore; treasurer, Archibald R. Hoxton, of the Episcopal High School; secretary, Mayo C. Brown, of Charlottesville; assistant do., John M. Daniel, jr., of the Episcopal High School. Executive committee—R. Walton Moore, Arthur Barnwell, jr., Frank B. Smith, A. R. Hoxton, Mayo C. Brown, Dr. J. C. Greenway, Dr. J. H. Yarnell, Dr. Larkins Glazebrook, Prof. W. H. Echols, Mr. R. E. Lee, jr., and H. C. Riely.

After determining to hold meetings on the last Wednesday of each session the association adjourned.

Charter.

The Corporation Commission yesterday chartered the Walker Hughes Market Corporation, of Alexandria. The following are the officers: John C. Walker, president; John A. Hughes, vice president; H. F. Woodward and C. F. Diggs, directors, all of Washington. The capital is placed at $100,000 maximum.

Death of Dr. McLean.

Dr. E. P. McLean, recently deputy collector of internal revenue for this district, died at 4 o'clock this morning at the Alexandria Hospital. The deceased had for some time been suffering from chronic organic trouble. He was in his 62d year and leaves a widow and seven children—four sons and three daughters. Dr. McLean was a native of Pennsylvania, and in early life served in the 66th and 155th regiments of Pennsylvania volunteers. In 1875 he moved to Mecklenburg county, Va., where he practiced his profession, he being a graduate of Jefferson Medical College of Philadelphia. He soon became active in politics and previous to the adoption of the present constitution had been elected a member of the legislature from Mecklenburg. He had in the meantime been appointed a clerk in the internal revenue office for this district and was transferred to this city about seven years ago. He failed to sign the new constitution and his position as delegate became vacant. Some time ago Mr. James Beamer, deputy collector of revenue, became incapacitated for duty by reason of indisposition, and Dr. McLean was called to fill the position. During his residence in Alexandria Dr. McLean had made many friends and acquaintances, and his munificence in many instances are well known to those with whom he was intimate. His remains will be taken to Mecklenburg county for interment.

Sale of "Woodlawn Mansion."

Mr. Grant Parish, real estate broker of Washington, made a sale of Mr. Paul Kester's property yesterday. The estate is known as "Woodlawn Mansion," and is located about four miles back of Mount Vernon and was originally a part of the Mount Vernon estate. General Washington in his last will left this portion of his estate to Nellie Custis Lewis and built for her the present "Woodlawn Mansion House." The property was allowed to run down somewhat until purchased by Mr. Paul Kester, the well-known playwright, who has done so much to restore the mansion to its former glory since his ownership from 1901 to the present time. The price paid was $25,000 cash and the purchaser was Miss Elizabeth M. Sharpe of Orange, N. J. Mr. Paul Kester has purchased a historic castle in the lake regions of England and will live there in the future.

Corporation Court.

[Judge L. C. Barley presiding.] As stated in the Gazette of that date, the grand jury reconvened yesterday afternoon. At 7 o'clock the jury adjourned until 7 o'clock Thursday night, when whatever investigation they have on hand will be continued.

The cases against Richard Barnett and his wife, indicted for selling liquor without a license, will be called on Friday.

Edward Maple, indicted for breaking into a store, has been released on bail for his appearance at the September term.

The case of Alfonso Antonio, indicted for shooting James Winkfield, has been set for trial on Friday.

Wedding.

Miss Eva Lee Curtin, daughter of Mr. Christopher Curtin, and Mr. John W. Riley, one of Alexandria's well-known young business men, were quietly married at the rectory of Christ Church this evening at 4 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Morton performing the ceremony. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Katie Curtin, and Mr. J. Albert Leonard, Mr. Riley's associate in business, acted as best man. After the ceremony the bride and groom repaired to the home of the bride's parents on North Henry street where an informal reception was held. Mr. and Mrs. Riley were the recipients of numerous, valuable and costly presents.

Police Court.

There were several cases before Justice May in the Police Court this morning, most of which were unimportant, consisting chiefly of disorderly conduct on the part of negroes. Eugene Parker, colored, had been arrested by Officer Knight charged with selling cocaine. He did not deny the charge, but asserted that James Williams, alias "Jack Rabbit," colored, who had been summoned by Mr. Knight as a witness, also sold cocaine. Williams was locked up for trial tomorrow at which time witnesses will be on hand, and Parker was fined $25.

Excited Colloquy.

Late yesterday evening an excited colloquy between two women and a man on King street attracted some attention, and Officer Nicholson was finally impelled to interfere in order to ascertain the cause for the troubling of the waters. It was learned that one of the women was the wife of the man and the other a relative. It was a family jar, the man, it seemed, having left his home in a neighboring city and taken up his residence with a family on south Fairfax street. The man and his wife subsequently went to a hotel.

Three Men Drowned.

The body of a man which was pulled from the water near the Long bridge on Monday has been identified as that of Alexander Christholm, of Washington. Two other bodies have since been found. They have been identified as those of Dennis E. Bunch and Newt Bunch. The trio were in a boat fishing last Monday, and is supposed that the men were trying to exchange places in the boat when it capsized and in the struggle to save each other, all were drowned.

Preparing for New Ferry.

The work of removing the piles from the old ferry slip at the foot of King street has been renewed, and but few remain. Mr. John Callahan, general manager of the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company, was in this city this morning. He said the work of removing the ferry house to a point 39 feet farther north and the filling up of that portion of the dock where it is now situated will probably be commenced tomorrow.

Daughters of the Confederacy.

The Seventeenth Virginia Regiment Chapter, U. D. C., held their last meeting of the season at Lee Camp Hall this morning at 10 o'clock. A communication was received from the Alexandria Library requesting them to assist with the other Confederate organizations in a literary sale to be held early in November next, which was favorably acted upon. The chapter will resume its regular meetings in September.

Naval Attack Repulsed.

The naval attack upon the defenses of Washington which was precipitated last night by Admiral Dickens's squadron was repulsed by Forts Hunt and Washington. This was the first "fight" between men-of-war and forts in that locality since the war of 1812, when the battery at the White House and British vessels engaged in a duel. Many people from this city and Washington went to River View and Marshall Hall for the purpose of witnessing the battle last night. Early in the night there was a preliminary conflict, but between eleven and twelve o'clock the struggle became terrific. The roar of the cannon could be heard in this city, and large numbers of people repaired to the southeastern section of the city to see the glare of the searchlights and the flash of the guns from the forts and the fleet. Those who witnessed the "conflict" describe it in vivid terms, and say it was intensely realistic from beginning to end.

A dispatch from Fort Hunt today says: At day-break this morning the shot-riddled hulks of what was left of Admiral Dickens's secondary squadron, ignominiously defeated in the attempt to take the national capital, drifted down the Potomac. Every vessel in the fleet was "put out of action" by the magnificent gunnery of the artillerymen in Forts Washington and Hunt—according to the army version. The only damage done to the forts by the fire of the fleet was a window-pane cracked in the commandant's house. After the engagement the ships hovered in the offing until sun-rise, when they started down stream, supposedly for further operations against Fort Monroe.

Fort Monroe, Va., June 14.—The attack made by Admiral Dickens shortly before 10 o'clock last night, was the last one sustained by Fort Monroe. Nothing was known of the location of the fleet at noon today. An attack from the combined naval forces is expected in the near future.

Personal.

Mr. J. C. Smoot and family have gone to North Wilkesboro, North Carolina, to spend the summer.

After an absence of more than four months, during which they visited Europe and many parts of the Orient, Mr. Albert Brager, formerly of this city, Mrs. Brager, and their daughter, Miss Merla Brager, have returned to their home in Baltimore.

Mr. David N. Rust, jr., and Miss Elizabeth Magruder Danenhower will be married at Christ Church tonight. Rev. W. J. Morton, rector of the church, and Rev. H. P. Lee, of Baltimore, will officiate.

Mr. I. K. O'Brien has returned from the University of Virginia and his brother, Mr. E. K. O'Brien, now of Wilmington, Del., is visiting his parents in this city.

Mr. M. Downey is visiting friends at Blacksburg, where his son is a student of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bendheim, on south Royal street, was the scene of a delightful little euchre party last night in honor of their sister, Miss Minnie Berwanger, of Baltimore.

Royal Arcanum.

There was a well-attended meeting of Alexandria Council, Royal Arcanum, last night, at which an interchange of opinion took place between a number of the members concerning the most practical manner in which to meet the present conditions facing the organization. While a vein of seriousness was manifest in much that was said, it was by no means pessimistic, and from all that could be observed it was evident that there was a determination on the part of a majority to rise superior to their present temporary difficulties. Action looking to this end was taken. As was expressed in the Gazette yesterday, the entire community earnestly hope that a silver lining may soon appear in the cloud now hovering about this popular organization.

Negroes Fined.

Charles Briggs and Nace Butler, two negroes, were arraigned in the Washington police court yesterday, charged with disorderly conduct in swearing on street cars. Briggs was fined $25 and Butler $10. Judge Kimball said that all such cases of rowdiness will be dealt with in the same manner. He said that he is determined to put a check to disorderly conduct on the street cars of Washington. The action of the judge will meet with the hearty approval not only of many Washingtonians, but of Alexandrians who for many years have complained of the unseemly conduct of certain negroes who enter street cars in the capital city for the purpose of making themselves seen and heard.

Seminary Notes.

The finals at the Episcopal Theological Seminary will begin tonight with the missionary address by Archbishop Babcock, of Massachusetts.

Mr. G. C. Thomas, of Philadelphia, has given $400 for the library building fund.

The Board of Trustees of the Seminary met yesterday and appointed a committee with full power to make all arrangements for the building of a new chapel in the chapel to be given by Bishop Potter, of New York. The committee consists of Bishop Gibson, Rev. Drs. Micou and Wallis and Messrs. J. T. Burke and Joseph Willard.

Good Samaritans.

The members of the grand organization of the Good Samaritans were in session again today in the Alfred Street Baptist Church. The proceedings were of a routine nature and connected with the private business of the order. The election of officers, it is expected, will take place tomorrow, and not Friday, as has been supposed.

A frame house belonging to William Henry, colored, near the front gate of the Theological Seminary in Fairfax county, was burned last night.

The demurrer filed by United States Senator Mitchell to the indictment charging him with using his public office for private gain was overruled by Judge De Haven in the Federal Court in Portland, Oregon, yesterday. Next Tuesday was set for the trial of Senator Mitchell.

A Fearful Fate.

It is a fearful fate to have to endure the terrible torture of Piles. "I can truthfully say," writes Harry Colson, of Macmillan, "that for Blind, Bleeding, Itching and Protruding Piles, Bucklen's Arnica Salve is the best cure made." Also best for cuts, burns and injuries. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons Druggist.

CHILDREN'S GUM Elevates the Standard of the Mason Jar.

Read Carefully

By using Children's Extra Heavy Jar Gums you need no wrench to close or open your jars, consequently there will be no broken cap linings or tops of jars.

See that the edge of the cap is smooth, and even, then screw it down with your hands (use no wrench), and when the time comes to open the jar, pull the gum by the lip and it will easily slip from under the cap.

These rings are made double-thick and of an A-1 quality, hence we guarantee they will stay in position under the edge of the cap when placed in use, which is not the case with many of the cheap and thin cut goods. Try them and you will be convinced.
